1 About Manica University

At the core of Zambia's educational landscape, Manica University ("the University") stands as a beacon of enlightenment and a testament to an unwavering commitment to quality education. Founded on the principles of academic excellence, ethical integrity, and a profound passion for healthcare, Manica University emerges as a premier institution dedicated to advancing health professions education in the African region and beyond. Established in 2023, Manica University Zambia stands on the cusp of a transformative endeavour, serving as a beacon of knowledge and excellence that will illuminate the path to a healthier, brighter future for the nation and beyond. With immense pride and unwavering dedication, the Board and Management of Manica University introduce the dawn of a new era—the birth of a privately-owned university dedicated to the pursuit of excellence in health professions education. Manica University is a place where learner's dreams are cultivated, and aspirations are nurtured—a haven of learning that transcends boundaries and fosters innovation in healthcare. We embody the fusion of tradition and modernity, culture and progress, and, most importantly, knowledge and compassion.

Our aim is to produce healthcare professionals who are not only skilled in their craft but also deeply empathetic and culturally sensitive, poised to serve their communities with compassion and integrity. We understand that the health sector is not merely about science and technology; it's about the human connection, the healing touch, and the power of a caring heart. Manica University's commitment to excellence extends beyond the classroom, encompassing state-of-the-art facilities, world-class faculty, and cutting-edge research opportunities. We aspire to be a hub of innovation and progress, a place where breakthroughs happen, and boundaries are pushed.

At Manica University, we welcome students from all walks of life, creating an inclusive environment that reflects the beautiful tapestry of the African continent. Together, we learn from each other's experiences and perspectives, enriching our collective understanding of healthcare and transforming the way healthcare must be professionally practiced.

2 Brief History of Manica University

Manica University is a privately-owned higher learning institution registered with the Higher Education Authority (HEA) of Zambia in pursuit of the Higher Education (Amendment) Act, no. 23 of 2021. The university is operated by the Board of Directors, duly registered by the Patents and Companies Registration Authority (PACRA) of Zambia. The programmes offered by Manica University are approved by the relevant authorities, including the General Nursing Council of Zambia (GNC) and the Health Professions Council of Zambia (HPCZ).

Manica University was founded with its initial three Schools: the School of Nursing Sciences, the School of Public Health, and the School of Pharmacy. At the time of its establishment and inception, Manica University had one campus situated in Lusaka, the capital city of Zambia.

3 Our Vision

Manica University envisions a world where healthcare knows no bounds, where healthcare professionals are not only skilled but also compassionate, and where knowledge is the cornerstone of healing. We envision graduates who are not just healthcare practitioners but also empathetic caregivers, making a meaningful impact on individuals, communities, and society at large.

4 Our Mission

To be the premier institution for health professions training in Africa, providing a nurturing, inclusive, and innovative educational environment that fosters the holistic development of healthcare professionals. We pledge to offer nothing but the finest in educational services, where quality meets purpose, and passion meets precision.

5 Core Values

Manica University is more than an institution; it is a legacy in the making, a testament to the power of education, and a promise of a brighter, healthier tomorrow. The foundation upon which our university is built rests on pillars of academic excellence, ethical integrity, and a commitment to fostering a vibrant community of learners.

At the heart of Manica University are the following core values that govern the institution, its staff, and students in the execution of the mandate:

5.1 Excellence

At Manica University, excellence in academia is not merely a goal; it is our guiding principle. Our distinguished faculty, composed of experts and leaders in various health disciplines, are dedicated to imparting knowledge, fostering critical thinking, and nurturing the next generation of healthcare professionals. Our rigorous curricula, cutting-edge research opportunities, and state-of-the-art facilities ensure that our students receive a world-class education that is second to none.

5.2 Ethical Integrity

At Manica University, we understand that healthcare is not just a professional duty for those entrusted to provide the service; it is a calling. Manica University places a strong emphasis on ethical integrity and values-driven education. Our students are not only trained in the latest medical and scientific advancements but are also instilled with the importance of ethical conduct, client-centred care, and cultural sensitivity. We believe that healthcare professionals should not only heal but also inspire trust and confidence in their clients and communities they serve.

5.3 Inclusivity and Diversity

Manica University takes pride in its diverse and inclusive community. We celebrate the rich tapestry of backgrounds, experiences, and perspectives that our students and faculty bring to our institution. This diversity enriches our learning environment, fostering a spirit of collaboration, tolerance, and global awareness.

5.4 Innovation and Research

In an ever-evolving industry like healthcare, innovation is the key to progress. Manica University is committed to being at the forefront of healthcare innovation and research. We encourage our students and faculty to explore new horizons, question conventions, and drive forward the frontiers of knowledge. Through research and innovation, we aim to make a lasting impact on healthcare practices and policies.

5.5 Corporate Social Responsibility

At Manica University, the community where we operate from and provide services is our number one development partner. We work in the community for the community, and embark on positive transformation of the community. Together, we work to shape the future of the community we serve by ensuring our students, faculty, and facilities are used to give back and provide healthcare services to the community, thereby contributing to the well-being of the community.

6 University Motto

The motto for Manica University is “Knowledge, Compassion, Excellence.” It embodies the institution’s core values and aspirations:

Knowledge: This reflects the University’s commitment to the pursuit and dissemination of knowledge. It signifies that at Manica University, learning, research, and academic excellence are paramount. Students and staff are encouraged to seek, create, and share knowledge to advance their fields of study and contribute to society’s well-being.

Compassion: This element of the motto emphasises the importance of empathy, caring, and a deep sense of responsibility. It signifies that education at Manica University is not just about acquiring skills and knowledge but also about using that knowledge to make a positive impact on people’s lives and communities. It underscores the idea that healthcare professionals and scholars should approach their work with empathy and a genuine concern for the well-being of individuals and communities.

Excellence: This part of the motto underscores the commitment to excellence in all endeavours. It signifies that Manica University expects nothing less than the highest standards of performance, ethics, and professionalism from its students and staff. It encourages the continuous pursuit of improvement and the cultivation of a culture where excellence is not just a goal but a way of life.

In summary, the motto “Knowledge, Compassion, Excellence” encapsulates the University’s mission and values, emphasising the importance of knowledge as a foundation, compassion as a guiding principle, and excellence as the ultimate goal in education, healthcare, and research. It serves as a reminder to the university community to uphold these principles in their academic and professional pursuits.

7 Governance and Management

Manica University is incorporated with the Patent and Companies Registration Agency (PACRA) as a Limited Company by Shares. The governance and management structure comply with the provisions of the Companies Act of 2017 and the Higher Education Authority Act of 2013 and its subsequent Amendment Act No. 23 of 2021. The Board of Directors is responsible for corporate governance oversight, while the institutional governance for the administration and management of the University are under the responsibility of the Council, which provides oversight on the various Council Committees, the Senate and its Committees, Directorates, and such other bodies as the Council may designate from time to time. Appendix 1 represents the organogram of the University's Corporate and Institutional Governance Committees. Appendix 2 and Appendix 3 represent the Staff Organogram.

7.1 Corporate Governance

7.1.1 Board of Directors

In compliance with the Company Act and in conforming to good corporate governance principles and guidelines, Manica University has constituted a Board of Directors ("Board") whose main responsibility is to provide oversight over the effective running of its affairs by the University Council, the Senate, and Management while protecting the interests of the shareholders and stakeholders. This is achieved through the implementation of sound internal controls, the development of policies, processes, and procedures. The Terms of Reference for the Board of Directors are contained in a separate Board Charter. The Board of Directors has delegated authority to the University Council to execute its responsibilities in accordance with the provisions of the Higher Education Authority Act and has also delegated authority to the Chief Executive Officer to provide operational leadership and to promote the image of the University.

7.1.2 Corporate Governance Leadership

7.1.2.1 Board Chairperson

The Board Chairperson is selected from the current Independent Non-Executive Directors of the University. Their responsibilities encompass:

- a. Presiding over Board meetings.
- b. Ensuring appropriate delegation of authority from the Board of Directors to Board Committees and the Chief Executive Officer.
- c. Overseeing the execution of all Board decisions.
- d. Fostering constructive relationships between the Board and the University Council.
- e. Addressing individual Directors' conflicts of interest promptly and effectively.
- f. Ensuring annual evaluations of the Board, Board Committees, and Individual Board members and taking necessary actions based on the evaluation results.
- g. Facilitating the communication of Shareholders' views to the Board of Directors.

- h. Establishing and maintaining the University's ethical standards, upholding the highest levels of integrity and honesty, and advocating for strong corporate governance. The Board Chairperson should possess a thorough understanding of any non-compliance with corporate governance directives or requirements and, if full compliance cannot be achieved, promptly informing the Shareholders of the situation.

7.1.2.2 Company Secretary

The Company Secretary plays a pivotal role in maintaining effective communication between the Board and University operations, serving as a vital link connecting the University with its Stakeholders and Regulators.

Responsibilities of the Company Secretary include:

- a. Guiding the Board and the University in matters of compliance and upholding the University's integrity through the promotion of high ethical standards. They ensure adherence to Board procedures and best corporate governance practices.
- b. Offering guidance on all legal matters related to the University.
- c. Ensuring the presentation of high-quality information to the Board and its Committees.
- d. Custodianship of all meeting minutes of the Board and its Committees.
- e. Reporting on governance matters and responsibilities to the Board Chairperson.

7.1.1.3 Chief Executive Officer

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is appointed in accordance with the Articles of Association of the University and holds direct responsibility for overseeing the overall operations and resources of the University. This includes ensuring that University operations comply with relevant laws, regulations, and internal policies.

Specifics regarding the CEO's role:

- a. The CEO is accountable to the Board of Directors and is appointed by them.
- b. The appointment of the CEO follows a rigorous selection process based on competencies, capabilities, skills, experience, and educational qualifications.
- c. The Board of Directors delegates appropriate levels of authority to the CEO for the effective and efficient execution of operational duties and responsibilities. The CEO must not discharge their duties without written delegation of authority from the Board.
- d. While serving as CEO, the individual also holds the position of an Executive Director and Ex-Officio on the Board of Directors, without voting powers during board meetings.
- e. The CEO, or an acting CEO, is designated as the official spokesperson for the University and is authorised by the Board of Directors to make official statements on behalf of the University. The Board Chairperson must approve official statements before communication to stakeholders. In the absence of the CEO, the Vice Chancellor may make official statements on behalf of the University.

7.1.3 Committees of the Board of Directors

To enhance the effectiveness of the Board of Directors in executing its fiduciary responsibilities, the Board of Directors has constituted the Corporate Governance Committee, Audit and Risk Management Committee, and the Nominations and Remunerations Committees. The terms of reference for the Board Committees are included in the Board Charter of the University.

7.1.3.1 Corporate Governance Committee

The Corporate Governance Committee has been constituted for the purpose of developing and recommending to the Board policies, procedures, and processes relating to corporate governance principles, and periodically reviewing the corporate governance guidelines of the University. The Committee is also mandated to review, oversee, and monitor the University's compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements and relevant laws standards.

- c. Reviewing and approving the audit scope and frequency.
- d. Receiving and reviewing audit reports and ensuring that senior management takes appropriate corrective actions in a timely manner to address control weaknesses, non-compliance with laws and regulations, and any other issues identified by auditors.
- e. Ensuring the adequacy of accounting principles, policies, internal control systems, and practices.
- f. Ensuring that the University's resources are safeguarded, laws are complied with, and disclosures are based on reliable information.
- g. Monitoring the performance of the Finance and Investments Committee to ensure effective financial planning and budgeting.
- h. Providing oversight on senior management in the management of market risk, liquidity risk, operational risk, legal risk, compliance risk, reputational risk, strategic risk, and any other risks that the University may be exposed to.
- i. Advising the Board on the University's overall current and future risk tolerance, risk appetite, and risk strategy and overseeing senior management's implementation of that risk strategy.
- j. Reviewing the Risk Management Framework and associated policies and recommending them for Board approval to ensure that the University maintains a sound risk methodology to facilitate the identification, measurement, monitoring, and control of risks.
- k. Ensuring that the executive management takes necessary steps to monitor and control risks.

7.1.3.3 Nominations and Remunerations Committee

The Board of Directors has constituted the Nominations and Remuneration Committee to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibility to Shareholders, ensuring that the remuneration policy and practices of the University reward fairly and responsibly, taking into account statutory and regulatory requirements. The Committee is also mandated to review all remuneration and nominations strategies, policies, and structures and provide recommendations to the Board.

The Nominations and Remunerations Committee comprises eight (8) members, including the following:

- Three Independent Non-Executive Directors
- Vice Chancellor
- Chief Executive Officer
- Company Secretary
- Head – Human Resource and Administration

Key responsibilities of the Nominations and Remunerations Committee include:

- a. Identifying and assisting with the recruitment of competent and qualified candidates for Board membership, Chairperson of the Board, Board Committee members, and members of the University Council.
- b. Establishing a formal selection criterion for prospective Directors and participating in the evaluation of the Board and the University Council's effectiveness.
- c. Assessing the effectiveness of the Board and directing the process of renewing and replacing Board members.

The Directorate is headed by the Dean of Students Affairs who reports to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor – Academic Affairs.

7.3.2.2 School Boards and Their Roles

School Boards play a pivotal role in the governance and decision-making processes at Manica University. Collectively, these School Boards contribute significantly to the effective governance, management, and academic excellence of the university. Typically, each board comprises academic members of staff, with Deans serving as Chairpersons, along with Assistant Deans, student representatives, and external stakeholders. Each board is assigned specific responsibilities and roles within the institution's governance structure.

I. Board of Studies

The Board of Studies constitutes a pivotal academic body within a School or Academic Directorate, playing a central role in the oversight and management of academic programs and curricula within specific academic departments or disciplines. Each School at Manica University establishes its own Board of Studies.

a. Composition:

- i. Faculty Members: The Board of Studies comprises all faculty members from the respective academic departments overseen by the School. These faculty members, esteemed experts in their fields, actively contribute to shaping the curriculum and academic policies.
- ii. Chairperson: The board is chaired by the Dean of the School. In their absence, the role may be assumed by the Assistant Dean or a senior faculty member appointed from among its members. The chairperson provides leadership, guides the board's activities, and represents its interests.
- iii. External Experts or Stakeholders: Depending on specific needs, the board may invite external experts or professionals from relevant industries or disciplines to serve as members or advisors. Their presence ensures real-world insights and the ongoing relevance of the respective programs.
- iv. Students: Representatives: In line with Manica University's commitment to student involvement in decision-making, the Board of Studies includes student representatives. These representatives offer valuable input on curriculum and academic matters, enriching the academic discourse with their perspectives and insights.

b. Powers and Responsibilities:

The powers and responsibilities of the Board of Studies encompass, but are not limited to, the following:

- i. Curriculum Development: The Board of Studies is responsible for the development and ongoing updates of academic programs and curricula within its respective departments or disciplines. It ensures alignment with current academic standards and industry requirements.
- ii. Academic Standards: The Board establishes and maintains academic standards, encompassing grading policies, assessment methods, and evaluation criteria for courses and programs within the School.
- iii. Quality Assurance: Oversight of academic program quality and relevance falls under the purview of the Board. It conducts regular reviews to assess program effectiveness and provides recommendations for improvement.
- iv. Course Approvals: The Board reviews and approves new courses, modifications to existing courses, and program changes, ensuring they align with departmental academic objectives.
- v. Assessment of Student Learning: Monitoring and assessing student learning outcomes within the department are key responsibilities. The Board ensures students achieve intended learning objectives and competencies.
- vi. Resource Allocation: Collaborating with the university administration, the Board allocates resources, faculty, and facilities to support academic programs and research initiatives within the departments.
- vii. Faculty Development: The Board may recommend faculty development opportunities aimed at enhancing teaching methods, fostering research activities, and promoting professional growth.
- viii. Research Support: Within its department, the Board may provide support for research initiatives, creating an environment conducive to scholarly activities and innovation.
- ix. Accreditation: Verification of documentation and information required for program accreditation, if applicable, is undertaken by the Board to meet external accreditation standards and requirements.
- x. Ethical Standards: Upholding ethical standards and practices within the academic departments is a priority for the Board, ensuring academic integrity and adherence to university policies.
- xi. Recommendations: The Board of Studies has the authority to make recommendations to the university's academic governing body, such as the Senate or University Council. These recommendations may pertain to academic policies, program changes, and resource allocation within the department.

- xii. Student Support: Collaborating with other university units, the Board ensures that students have access to essential resources, support services, and opportunities for both academic and professional growth.

c. Meetings of the Board of Studies:

The Board shall convene at least once every semester, as applicable.

- i. A quorum for a Board meeting shall consist of 50 percent of the total membership of the Board.
- ii. The Board may establish its own meeting procedures, with the provision that the Senate may prescribe standard procedures for Board meetings.
- iii. The Board of Studies of a School may extend invitations to external experts to attend its meetings in an advisory capacity. However, those individuals shall not become official members of the Board or possess voting rights.
- iv. Decisions within the Board shall be made by a simple majority vote of the members present and voting during the meeting. In the event of a tie vote, the individual presiding over the meeting shall hold a casting vote in addition to their deliberative vote.

d. Declaration of Interest by Members of the Board of Studies:

- i. If an individual attending a Board of Studies meeting has a direct or indirect personal interest, or if their relation or associate has such an interest, in any matter under consideration, they must promptly declare this interest at the start of the meeting. Furthermore, they shall refrain from participating in any deliberation, discussion, or vote related to that matter.
- ii. Any declaration of interest made in accordance with this section shall be documented in the minutes of the meeting during which the disclosure occurred.
- iii. Violation of this provision outlined in 5.1.4.(a) constitutes an offense, subject to disciplinary action and penalties as determined by the Disciplinary Committee of the Senate.

II. Board of Examiners:

A Board of Examiners shall be established for each School or Academic Directorate, comprising both Internal and External Examiners appointed by the Senate. This board plays a pivotal role in maintaining the fairness, integrity, and consistency of the examination and assessment processes, safeguarding the academic standards and integrity of assessments at the university. Its composition and powers are designed to ensure the equitable conduct of assessments in accordance with university policies and guidelines.

a. Composition:

- i. Chairperson: The Board of Examiners shall be led by the Dean of the School. In the Dean's absence, the Assistant Dean or a senior faculty member with expertise in assessment and examination procedures may assume the role of chairperson. The chairperson may also hold a leadership position within the department or academic unit.

- ii. Faculty Members (Internal Examiners): The board shall include faculty members or academic staff from various relevant departments or disciplines within the School. Their expertise contributes to the fairness and alignment of the assessment process with academic standards.
- iii. External Examiners: In some instances, external examiners from other universities or institutions, recognised experts in the field, may be invited to participate as members or advisors to ensure impartiality and rigor.

b. Powers and Responsibilities:

- i. Examination Oversight: The Board of Examiners is responsible for supervising all aspects of the examination process, including the establishment of examination standards, procedures, and schedules.
- ii. Assessment Standards: The Board ensures that assessment methods and practices adhere to the university's academic policies and guidelines. This involves reviewing and endorsing examination questions and assessment criteria.
- iii. Quality Assurance: The Board monitors the quality, validity, and fairness of examinations and assessments, striving to maintain consistency and uphold academic integrity.
- iv. Marking and Grading: Oversight of the marking and grading processes falls under the purview of the Board, ensuring objective, fair, and guideline-compliant practices.
- v. Assessment Moderation: In cases involving multiple assessors, the Board may moderate assessment results to verify grading accuracy and reliability.
- vi. Cheating and Academic Misconduct: The Board investigates cases of academic misconduct, including cheating and plagiarism, and recommends appropriate sanctions for consideration by the Disciplinary Committee, as per university policies.
- vii. Recommendations: The Board may propose changes to examination policies, assessment methods, or grading standards to the Senate.
- viii. Reporting: The Board of Examiners reports examination results to the Senate for approval and timely communication to students. It also ensures secure storage of examination results, with the School and Registrar serving as custodians, accessible only to authorised personnel.
- ix. Examination Policy Development: The Board contributes to the development and revision of examination policies, assessment guidelines, and academic regulations within the university, making recommendations for Senate approval.

c. Meetings of the Board of Examiners:

- i. The Board shall convene at least once every semester after the conclusion of the examination processes to receive, deliberate upon, and approve examination results for submission to the University Senate.
- ii. Mandatory attendance is required for all Internal Examiners at Board of Examiners meetings.
- iii. The Board may determine its own meeting procedures, though the Senate may establish standard procedures for such meetings.
- iv. The Board of Examiners for a School may extend invitations to external examiners to attend its meetings; however, these individuals shall not acquire membership of the Board or possess voting rights.
- v. Decisions within the Board of Examiners shall be reached by a simple majority vote among the members present. In the event of a tie vote on a matter, the Chairperson or individual presiding at the meeting shall hold a casting vote in addition to their deliberative vote.
- vi. Decisions made by the Board of Examiners are final and can only be overturned or overruled by the University Senate.

d. Declaration of Interest by Members of the Board of Examiners:

- i. Any individual attending a Board of Examiners meeting who has a direct or indirect personal interest, or whose relation or associate has such an interest, in any matter under consideration must declare this interest promptly at the commencement of the meeting. Furthermore, they shall abstain from participating in any deliberations, discussions, or votes related to that matter.
- ii. Any declaration of interest made in accordance with this section shall be documented in the minutes of the meeting during which the disclosure occurred.
- iii. Violation of this provision outlined in subsection 5.2.4.(a) constitutes an offense, subject to disciplinary action and penalties as determined by the Disciplinary Committee of the Senate.

e. Prohibition to Publish or Disclose Information to Unauthorised Persons:

- i. Without prior written consent given by, or on behalf of, the Board of Studies or Board of Examiners, individuals shall not publish or disclose to any unauthorised parties, except in the course of their duties, the contents of any document, communication, or information related to, and acquired in the course of their participation in the Board, as stipulated in the Policies and Regulations of Manica University.
- ii. Violation of subsection 5.2.5(a) constitutes an offense, subject to disciplinary action and penalties determined by the Disciplinary Committee of the Senate.

- iii. An individual in possession of information that has been unlawfully published or communicated in contravention of subsection 5.2.5(a) to any other individual shall also be deemed in violation of this provision and shall be subject to the same disciplinary action and penalty as specified in sub-Article 5.2.5(b).

f. Oath of Secrecy and Non-disclosure Agreement:

- i. Every individual appointed as a member of the Board of Studies or Board of Examiners, as the case may be, shall take and subscribe an Oath of Secrecy before a Commissioner for Oaths or sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement as prescribed by Council Regulations.
- ii. Any individual covered by this section who, having complied with subsection 5.2.6(a), does or fails to do any act in contravention of the oath commits an offense and shall be subject to disciplinary action and penalties as determined by the University Council.

III. University Library and Scholarly Collections Unit:

7.3.2.5 Internal Audit and Risk Management Department:

The Internal Audit and Risk Management Department operates independently and is responsible for promoting the establishment of cost-effective internal controls, assessing and mitigating risks, and providing assurance to the Board of Directors regarding risk management. The department is led by the Chief Internal Auditor, who reports to the Board of Directors through the Audit and Risk Management Committee. Key functions of the department include:

- a. Evaluating and improving the effectiveness of risk management, control environment, and governance processes.
- b. Providing management and the Board of Directors with accurate and objective analyses, appraisals, opinions, counsel, and information related to ongoing audit activities.
- c. Conducting fraud audits to identify potential fraudulent acts and post-investigation fraud audits to identify control breakdowns.
- d. Keeping the Audit and Risk Management Committee informed and up-to-date on the state of the University concerning risk, controls, and governance.
- e. Reviewing internal controls of processes, procedures, and systems to enhance productivity, efficiency, and effectiveness in University operations.

7.3.2.6 Procurement, Logistics, and Maintenance Department:

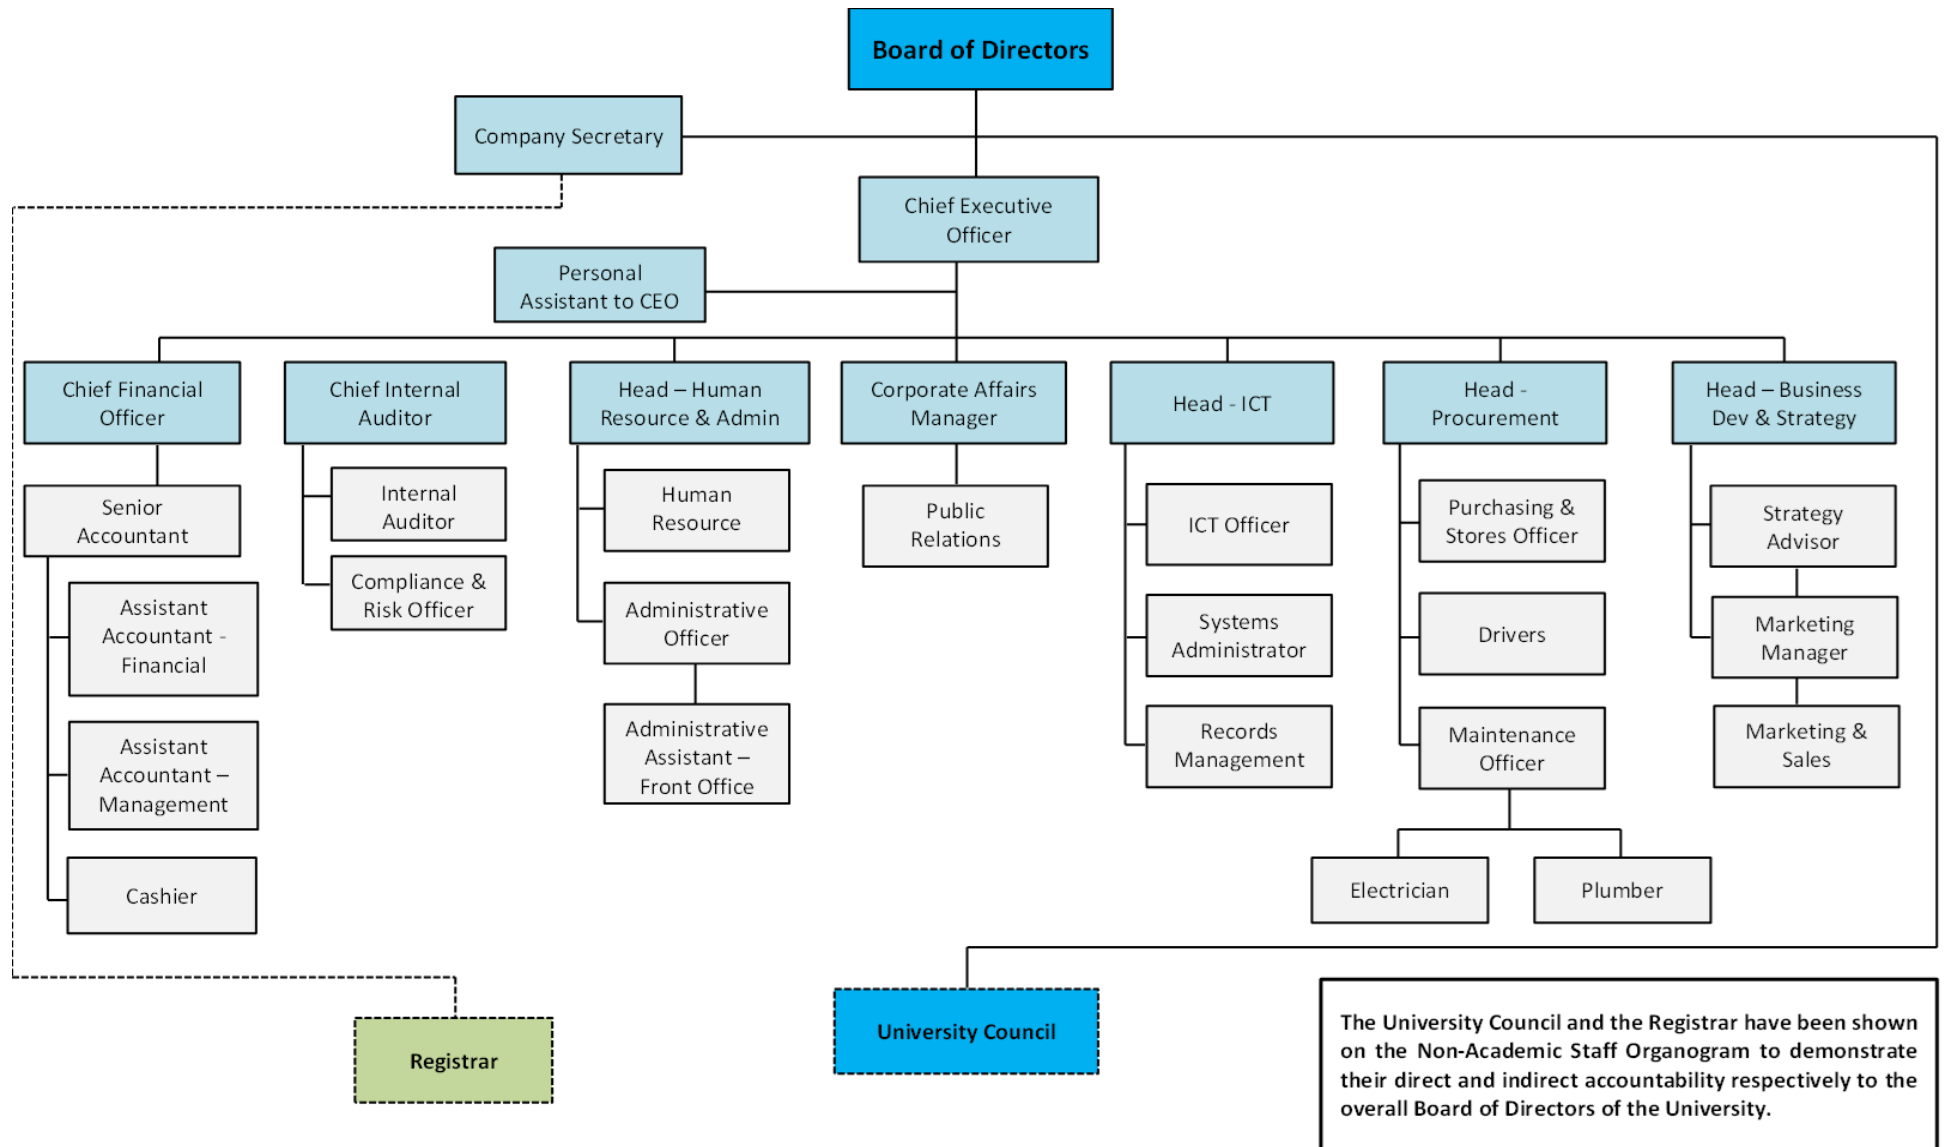

The Procurement, Logistics, and Maintenance Department coordinates and manages the procurement of goods and services from external suppliers. Additionally, it oversees the effective management and maintenance of transport logistics, infrastructure, and University assets. Heading this department is the Head of Procurement, who reports to the Chief Executive Officer. Key functions of the department include:

- a. Negotiating procurement pricing and contracts.
- b. Monitoring and evaluating supplier performance.
- c. Managing the storage of procured goods and ensuring all University units are adequately supplied.
- d. Conducting inventory of all University assets and maintaining the Assets Register.
- e. Managing the use of University fleet vehicles and ensuring adherence to procedures and policies related to vehicle use.
- f. Maintaining and repairing University infrastructure and equipment, ensuring that buildings, fixtures, fittings, and vehicles remain in good condition.
